The CATCH PROMISE

What is the CATCH Promise?

The CATCH Promise is an initiative to bring the Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child (WSCC) model to school districts across the country where there is:

1. A substantial public health need
2. A lack of resources to implement
3. District readiness to act

CATCH Global Foundation will assist qualifying districts with curriculum, materials, training, and technical support to work toward implementation and institutionalization of the WSCC model using the CATCH Coordination Kit as a roadmap for school wellness.

Who is eligible for the CATCH Promise?

K-8 schools in 100 priority districts (see reverse for full list) with large student populations and high free-and-reduced lunch eligibility rates (76.5% average) are eligible for subsidized health programming through the CATCH Promise. These two factors are strong indicators of public health need and lack of resource availability.

The CATCH Promise Works.

With evidence-based curriculum alongside high-quality PE training for teachers, we achieve meaningful impacts on health behaviors. Kids at CATCH Promise schools become more physically active during their PE classes, and campuses show a 25% increase in the number of students meeting fruit and vegetable consumption guidelines.
